

The Marriages, Children, and Times of Izaak Barnard Sr. (c. 1720–1801)

Thanks to research in the (digital) archives of The Hague, Rotterdam, and Amsterdam by Margreet Barnard (1965, Branch V) the following has been revealed about the marriages and children of Izaak Barnard Sr. (who married in 1744 and 1751, and died in 1801); at the beginning of 2022 the first known ancestor of the current family Barnard in the Netherlands (see p. 35 of this document).

Before the introduction of a central civil administration in the Netherlands, between 1792 and 1796, and the administrative reforms of King Louis Napoléon Bonaparte and minister Isaac Jan Alexander Gogel (p. 4), between 1806 and 1813, a standardized spelling of first and last names was considered of less importance. The names of those with limited means and possessions were usually written down as they were heard and not subsequently checked or corrected. Several variations of the last name “Barnard” can therefore be found in the archives. Where relevant, the actual variant is provided in parentheses, as are the access codes of the documents.

The Marriages of Izaak Barnard Sr.

In his two marriages Izaak Sr. had ten children of which nine reached adulthood. Three of these remained in The Hague (’s-Gravenhage or Den Haag), three moved to Rotterdam and its surrounding areas, and three others moved to Amsterdam. Den Haag is the current Dutch name of The Hague, which is a shortened version of the original ’s-Gravenhage. Other names for the same city in the center-west of the Netherlands are Die Haghe, Den Hage, and La Haye (in French).

His first marriage with Johanna van Asperen

Izaak Barnard Sr. appears in the archives of The Hague on 13 December 1744 (no796f171v), when he gets engaged to be married to Johanna van Asperen:

They get married on 27 December 1744 in the Oude Kerk (Old Church) in Scheveningen (f154); at the time the only church in this small coastal town (p. 6):

Johanna van Asperen is the widow of Matthijs Dannenburg. On 13 May 1736 one Andries Dannenburgh is baptized in Rijswijk, he is the son of Matthijs Dannenburgh and Johanna van Asperen (inv702.2f101). He is named after the father of Matthijs (his grandfather).

The passing of Johanna van Asperen appears to be mentioned on 4 March 1751 in a funerary log (OITB 13, p. 107). She is 42 years old at the time and is interred on 5 March 1751 in Rijswijk (inv707.11f143). The name Izaak Barnard is not mentioned in this entry.

His second marriage with Johanna Vogelesang

According to the index card archive of the municipality of The Hague, Johanna Vogelesang and Izaak Barnard get engaged on 4 July 1751 (below, middle). This could, however, be a copying error because another engagement log mentions 11 July 1751, as well as their marriage on 25 July 1751 in de Oude Kerk in Scheveningen (no798f53v).

Between May 1779 and September 1791 one Eysak Bernard is recorded as living at 3211 Zuijd Lange Bagijnestraat, The Hague (p. 12). This is most likely Izaak Barnard Sr. While living there he loses his wife Johanna Vogelesang. Her death is recorded on 11 March 1790 in The Hague (OITB19f3v). She died at an age of 58 years from a disease of the chest (borstkwaal):

54. W. Johanna Vogelesang, borst kwaal. N. 11

She is interred on 12 March 1790 in the Noorderkerkhof cemetery in The Hague. Around 6:30 am. a bier had been brought to the Bagijnestraat (dtb293f99):

In May 1792, Izaak seems to have moved to number 3210 in the same street. In this entry it is mentioned that he is not only a koller (a laborer grinding old paper and cloth into the raw material to make new paper), but also a burgher (a result of his marriage with Johanna van Asperen), and even a “city guard” (in this period a honorary title rather than an actual function):

On 2 December 1801 Izaak Sr. is interred in the Heiligeweg- en Leidsche Kerkhof cemetery in Amsterdam (dtb1248p2v-3).

The Children of Izaak Barnard Sr.

Children from his first marriage with Johanna van Asperen:

ISAK (last name written as Bernart) baptized on 9 February 1744 in the Nieuwe Kerk (New Church) in Den Haag (no246f73v), witness is Sofya van Hussel (most likely this is the same person as Sofia van Husden who is mentioned as a witness at the baptism of Sofia, below).

SOFIA (last name written as Bernart) — p. 17 baptized 6 December 1746 in the Nieuwe Kerk (no246f107v), witness is Sofia van Husden (most likely this is the same person as Sofya van Hussel who is mentioned as a witness at the baptism of Isak, above).

Isak is born on February 1744, but Izaak Sr. and Johanna van Asperen marry more than ten months later on 27 December 1744. Because Isak is born out of wedlock he is named after his father Izaak Sr. as was common practice at the time.

Isak only lives to be 11 years old. He dies on 28 October 1755 (OITB14f25), the cause of death is mentioned to have been pneumonia (verstopping op de longepijpen).

Sofia reached adulthood and get married in Rotterdam at a relatively advanced age. She does not get any children.

Children from this second marriage with Vogelesang:

witnessed by Willemijntje Janse.

JOHANNA (last name spelled as Bernart) — p. 21

Baptized 26 December 1756 in the Nieuwe Kerk (no247f89).

ISAK (last name spelled as Barnat) — p. 22

Baptized 4 June 1759 in the Nieuwe Kerk (no247f114).

JACOBA (last name spelled as Bernart) — p. 25

Baptized 27 July 1760 in the Nieuwe Kerk (no248f14).

JOHANNES (last name spelled as Barnat) — p. 25

Baptized 13 July 1762 in the Nieuwe Kerk (no248f53), witnessed by Grietje Backs.

CORNELIA (last name spelled as Barnat) — p. 28

Baptized 17 February 1765 in the Nieuwe Kerk (no248f111).

PIETERNELLA (last name spelled as Barnart) — p. 29

Baptized 15 November 1767 in the Nieuwe Kerk (no248f180).

Isak, born in 1759, was likely named after his older half-brother Isak who died in 1755 (p. 14). Their second son Johannes might have been named after the father of Izaak Sr.

All children from this second marriage reach adulthood and, with the exception of one daughter, marry and get children.

Maria, Isak, and Pieterella remain in The Hague. Willemina and Johanna move to Rotterdam, as did Sofia from the first marriage. Jacoba, Johannes, and Cornelia move to Amsterdam.

The passing of Izaak Sr. and Johanna Vogelesang is mentioned in the marriage certificates associated with the third marriages of both Johannes and Cornelia.

Sofia Barnard (Bernart, 1746):

Sofia gets engaged to widower Jan Willemse, from Emmerich in Germany, on 18 October 1800 and they get married on 2 November 1800 in Rotterdam. At this occasion it is mentioned that Sofia was born in The Hague and has not been married before (1-01.1076f88, here her name is spelled Sophia Barnart).

Sofia dies as Willemina Sophia Barnat, widow of Jan Willemse, on 9 July 1830 in Rotterdam (akte1331). Her father is mentioned to be Johannes Barnard, the name of her mother is not known to the declarants. Her brother-in-law Jan Platering is one of these declarants and states that Sofia passed away at the age of 83 years, 7 months, and 3 days (which corresponds exactly with the date of her baptism on 6 December 1746).

Maria Barnard (Bernart, 1752):

Maria gets engaged with Jacob Gisser on 20 August 1775 in The Hague (no802f103v). They get married on 3 September 1775 in the Oude Kerk in Scheveningen (103v). Jacob was baptized on 16 September 1749 in the Nieuwe Kerk in Den Haag (no247f10v) as the son of Jacob Gisser and Wilhelmina Pier.

The children of Maria and Jacob Gisser:

- WILLEMINA FREDERIKA (baptized 9 April 1776 in the Nieuwe Kerk in Den Haag, no249f81v);
- JOHANNA MARIA (baptized 4 January 1778 in the Nieuwe Kerk, no249f106v);
- JACOB (baptized 28 November 1779 in the Engelsche en Hoogduitse Kerk, the English and German Church, in The Hague, no296f165v);
- CATHARINA (baptized 9 April 1782 in the Nieuwe Kerk, no250f27);
- MARGARITA (baptized 6 April 1783 in the Engelsche en Hoogduitse Kerk, no297f11v);
- ISAACK (baptized 16 October 1785 in the Engelsche en Hoogduitse Kerk, no297f27v);
- WILLEM (baptized 1 January 1790 in the Engelsche en Hoogduitse Kerk, no297f53v).

Willemina Frederika and Willem pass away young. Willemina Frederika is interred on 28 August 1777 in Rijswijk. She is only 14 months old at the time and died because of measles (OITB17f43). Willem is interred on 26 June 1799. He is 9 years old at the time and died of consumption (teering, likely tuberculosis, OITB20f66).

Johanna Maria Gisser reaches adulthood and passes away unmarried on 4 September 1851 (akte 1368). Little is (as yet) known of Catharina, Margarita, and Isaack Gisser.

Jacob Gisser Jr. reached a prominent military rank. In 1836 he lives in Amsterdam and gets several children with the same woman but out of wedlock. In 1866 this woman files an affidavit in which he recognizes to be the father of the older children. He had already done the same when these children were registered. The younger children are likewise recognized to be his within a month after their birth.

 AMSTERDAM, 14 Mei 1866.

Jacob Gisser Sr. passed away before 1830, as during the 1830 census Maria is already a widow. The archives in The Hague, however, do not mention the death of a Jacob Gisser in the correct age group. There is an entry for the passing away of one Jacob Gieser on 7 June 1799, but he is already 76 years of age at the time (OITB19f7). In Rotterdam there is a mention of the death of another Jacob Gisser on 13 March 1811 in a nursing home (93.137 f95), just before the local introduction of the central civil administration in August 1811. This Jacob Gisser is 62 year old at the time, born in The Hague, and married. He is interred on 16 March 1811 (9999_25). The age of this Jacob Gisser fits the date one which the husband of Maria was baptized.

Maria dies at an advanced age on 29 January 1845 in The Hague as Maria Bernard, widow of Jacob Gisser. The declarants estimate her age to be 88 years, although she was a little older.

Willemina Barnard (Bernart, 1754):

Willemina gets engaged on 12 April 1798 with Jan Platerink in the city hall of Rotterdam and they get married in the same venue on 29 April 1798. Both of them have not previously been married (stadstrouw 1-01.1074). Their marriage is later confirmed in church, where they have announced their intentions on 15 April 1798. They receive the blessing of the Reverent Bouvink on 29 April 1798 in his residence (dtb 1-02.80).

Jan Platering passes away on 11 June 1838, he is 80 years old at the time (akte 1838B.1393). Willemina dies only 13 days later, on 24 June 1838, she is 83 years old at the time. Her name is entered as Willemina Barnardt, widow of Jan Platering. To this is added that she is the daughter of Hendrik Barnardt and Mietje Vogelesang (akte 1838B.1501).

Johanna Barnard (Bernart, 1756):

Johanna gets engaged with Cornelis de Vlugt on 25 October 1789 in Rotterdam. They get married on 8 November 1789. Neither have previously been married and the marriage is confirmed in a reformed church (dtb 1-02.80). Cornelis was the custodian of the Gate of Schiedam and the Delftse Veer (portier van de Schiedamse poort mitsgaarders bestelden van het Delftse Veer).

The children of Johanna and Cornelis de Vlugt:

- HERMINA SOPHIA (baptized on 28 March 1790 in the Zuiderkerk, Southern Church, in The Hague, 1-02.39 dtb);
- IZAK (born 2 February and baptized 12 February 1792 in the Zuiderkerk, 1-02.39 dtb);
- HENDRIK WILLEM (born 23 October and baptized 26 October 1794 in the Zuiderkerk, 1-02.40 dtb);
- JOHANNA CORNELIA (born 16 December and baptized 17 December 1797 in the Zuiderkerk, 1-02.41 dtb).

Both Izak and Johanna pass away at a young age. Izak is interred on 18 April 1793 (9999_23) and Johanna on 18 August 1804 (9999_24).

Cornelis de Vlugt passes away in Rotterdam on 28 June 1811 (1811.f55v-56), at an age of 46 years (boek 549). He is interred on 2 July 1811. Johanna passes away in Delfshaven on 1 April 1831 (akte 22, in which she is entered as Johanna Barnardt, widow of Cornelis de Vlugt). She is 73 years old at the time and is mentioned to be the daughter of Isac Barnard and Mietje Vogelesang. To this is added that she was self-employed (particuliere).

Isak Barnard (Barnat, 1759):

Isak gets engaged on 3 November 1782 with Magdalena Portou (p. 8, bottom) in The Hague (no803f145). They get married in the Engelsche en Hoogduitse Kerk on 17 November 1782 (no57f153). Magdalena Portou was baptized on 17 March 1748 in the Grote Kerk (no 15 folio 5). Her parents are Johannes Portou and Rachel Mensbergen.

The children of Magdalena and Isak Barnard:

- JOHANNA (baptized on 5 October 1783 in the Nieuwe Kerk in The Hague, no250f61);
- HENDRIK (baptized on 19 April 1786 in the Grote Kerk in The Hague, no20f168);
- WILLEMINA (born 8 August and baptized 9 August 1789 in the Nieuwe Kerk, no250f178);
- SARA (born 19 October and baptized 25 October 1792 in the Engelsche en Hoogduitse Kerk in The Hague, no297f73).

Willemina passes away when she is 6 years old because of an infectious disease (pestkoorts). She is interred on 14 December 1795 in the Noorderkerkhof cemetery (OITB19f100v).

Johanna marries Jacob Poederoijen on 1 July 1804 in Rijswijk (Rijswijk 5.II.0065 folio 138).

Hendrik get engaged on 11 November 1810 with Sara Margaretha ten Brink in The Hague (no808f94). They get married on 25 November 1810 in the Nieuwe Kerk (no278f294).

Sara marries Jacobus Johannes Hes on 3 August 1825 (akte 260).

Isak passes away as Isaac Barnard, married with Magdalena Portouw, on 25 April 1834 in The Hague (akte457). He is 75 years old at the time and worked as a plumber. Magdalena passes away as Magdalena Pertouw, widow of Isaac Barnard, on 13 February 1837 in The Hague (akte242).

Jacoba Barnard (Bernart, 1760):

No marriage of Jacoba has been found to date. On 24 December 1783 one Johannes is baptized in The Hague (no19f347). His father is Johannes Dadelooskij and his mother Jacoba Barnard. Clasina Meijer is mentioned as a witness. It is uncertain if this is a son of Jacoba Barnard.

Jacoba Barnard passes away on 19 February 1816 in Amsterdam (b1f130v). She is 48 years old at the time. The documents state that she is the daughter of Isak Barnard and Johanna Voglezang and not married. At the time of her death she was working as a maid (dienstbode).

Johannes Barnard (Barnat, 1762):

While living in Amsterdam, Johannes Barnard married three times and had a daughter from his first marriage. This Johanna Maria reaches adulthood, marries twice, and gets five children. Because of the fact that he has this daughter and that she gets married twice, once after he passed away, some additional information concerning Johannes Barnard can be found in the civil administrative records of Amsterdam Johannes calls himself Jean François, as mentioned in the first marriage license of his daughter: “daughter of Johannes Barnard who identifies himself as Jean François Barnard” (dochter van Johannes Barnard zich noemende Jean François Barnard). His profession is said to be bartender (tapper). In the record on his first marriage it is stated that at his engagement he was accompanied by his father Isak Barnard from The Hague, and in the record of his second marriage that at his engagement he was identified as the son of Isak Barnard and Johanna Vogelsang. This proves that Jean François must have been Johannes. At his first marriage he signs with François, at his second marriage he spells his name with a ‘c’ (without the cedilla).

At his third marriage, after the central civil administration has been introduced, he cannot get married as Jean François Barnard. It is now required for him to submit a certificate of his baptism and this states his name as Johannes Barnat. He therefore has to use this name and the marriage is duly registered as such. However, he signs ‘J. Bernard’ with an elegant curly stroke above his name.

Johannes continues to use other names than the one given to him at his baptism. In the registry of deaths he is therefore entered under an alternative name. From the documents for the second marriage of his daughter, who is required to show that her father has passed away, it is clear that the deceased has not been registered as Johannes Barnat, but rather as Franciscus Barnard. At the baptism of his nephew, the son of his sister Cornelia, he is mentioned as a witness with the name Johannes Isak.

On 25 October 1819 Jean François Barnard passes away, 66 years of age, in Amsterdam (bk7 32v).

Johannes Barnat gets married for the first time on 16 April 1790 in Amsterdam with Elisabeth Overmeijer (dtb758p88 pui). Elisabeth Overmeijer is interred on 14 October 1807 in the Heiligeweg- en Leidsche Kerkhof cemetery (dtb1248p137v-138). Their daughter Johanna Maria is baptized on op 25 April 1792 in the Noorderkerk (Northern Church) in Amsterdam (dtb85p124(f61v) nr1). This Johanna Maria Bernard works as a maid and gets married for the first time on 8 December 1811 with Carl Ludwig Wilging (reg 6 folio 136), and a second time on 5 November 1823 with Joannes Bernardus Tushuijsen, a master tailor (reg 4 folio 174). She passes away on 3 December 1838 (reg 9 folio 9).

Johannes Barnat gets married for a second time with Elisabeth Stigge, after getting engaged on 20 April 1810 in Amsterdam (dtb659p212 kerk). Elisabeth Stigge passes away on 8 March 1815 (b2f214).

Johannes Barnat gets married a third time with Willemina Johanna Roelofs on 19 June 1816 in Amsterdam (b4f26v). Willemina Johanna is the widow of Willem Bulterman. This marriage does not last long as Johannes passes away about three years later. Willemina Johanna Roelofs passes away much later, on 14 August 1836 (b6f184). At her death she is recorded to be the widow of Willem Bulterman. Her marriage to Johannes most likely latest too short to be mentioned.

Cornelia Barnard (Barnat, 1765):

Cornelia Barnard did get married in Amsterdam three times and had a child during both her first and her second marriage.

Cornelia gets engaged with Daniël Boom on 15 July 1790 in Amsterdam (dtb635p258 kerk). Daniël Boom is interred on 12 April 1805 (no1248f81v-82). They get one child: Johannes Isak who is baptized on 6 May 1791 in the Westerkerk (Western Church, dtb113p195(f98)).

Cornelia gets engaged for a second time on 19 September 1806, this time with Christiaan Frederich Rogge and again in Amsterdam (dtb654p511 kerk). Christiaan Fredrik (Fredrich) Rogge passes away on 17 December 1821 (b9f47v). He is 56 years old at the time, his profession is mentioned to be bartender (tapper). They get one child as well: Christiaan Fredrik is born on 30 June and baptized on 5 July 1807 in the Hersteld Lutherse Kerk (Renewed Lutheran Church, dtb295p536 (oud535) nr2).
